- III. Approval of Minutes – March 12th was approved by Martha Larson, and second by Mike Webster.

IV. Items for Discussion

- A. Halloween Judging October 22, 2025. 5:30pm Public Works, Chairman Brzoska asked volunteers to bring Their Volunteer Bage and invite others to assist. Ed Phaf stated that his niece will assist. Mike Webster stated that he can come early to put together signs. Liz Copeland asked if we had enough signs and Mark Wolf stated that more were ordered.
- B. Conservation Signs – Chairman Brzoska asked if more conservation signs were ordered and Ed Pfaf stated that he ordered more signs and has 10 signs to be installed around the village.
- C. Bird House Replacement Chairman Brzoska asked if the broken bird houses were replaced and Ed Pfaf stated that they were, and we currently have one birdhouse in stock. Chairman Brzoska asked if we can order 5 more.

V. Other Business – Liz Copeland showed pictures of ornaments we could use to decorate the “Merry & Bright” tree. Mark Wolf suggested a poinsettia tree. Mike Webster asked if the bridge flowers were from Schafers. Ed Pfaf replied yes and he thinks they had growth regulator issues this year. Liz Copeland asked if we can plant flowers in front of village hall next year and suggested mums on the bridge fall of 2026. Ed Pfaf suggested that the Beautification Committee have a booth at next year’s Montgomery Fest to showcase what the committee does throughout the year and possible give out trees. Brzoska suggested a float in next year’s parade.

VI. Next Meeting will be October 22, 2025, 5:30pm at Public Works.

VII. Adjournment – 6:29 pm.
